

TRAIN TO SUCCEED

Achieving Success Through Learning

Our business is business development

Ambitious business owners or managers need to develop the leadership and management capabilities to enable them to realise the full potential of their business.

Our Business Leadership Development programme is designed to train and support business owners and managers, including full management teams, and in some cases qualifies for co-funding support of up to 50%, depending on company location and sector. Please check with us for further details and to establish whether your company is eligible for this support.

The training programme will:

1. Help owners and managers define a medium terms "bull's eye" or "vision" for their business and a clear "flight path" thereto including key changes and developments necessary for vision realisation.
2. Guide the evolution of an effective marketing strategy to support vision realisation through development of a six step marketing planning process.
3. Help participants define and develop their leadership and management styles and related strengths and weaknesses critical to vision realisation.

The programme will build leadership capability and a platform for improved business performance at all key levels.

The programme comprises two workshop days and bespoke 1-2-1 guidance and support with the implementation of workshop learning.

Training is delivered by John Mc Mahon of Forum 21 Ltd., an inspirational and highly motivational trainer. John is renowned for his ability to engage with clients and provide a catalyst to performance improvement at individual, team and business levels, as well as giving a unique insight into businesses and their development potential. He has facilitated hundreds of leadership and business development programmes across the UK and internationally for growth ambitious entrepreneurs and companies from start ups to mature businesses.
