Achieving Success Through Learning

Our business is business development

Do you think your business would benefit from better leadership?

Would you like to really improve your leadership skills?

If so, our Management Development Programme may be just what you need. Some businesses may even qualify for co-funding support of up to 50%, depending on location and sector. Please check with us for further details and to establish whether your business is eligible for this support.

Management Development Programme

This programme is designed to develop the leadership and management abilities of business managers and directors by delivering bespoke management training supported by learning within the workplace and individual coaching support. In addition to resulting benefits to business performance, all participants will:-

- Develop and improve their leadership ability, confidence and managerial skills to enable them to grow the business with measurable impact
- Improve their management competence to aid further business development
- Improved their ability to lead people and help ensure that the company business plan becomes a reality
- Develop and use knowledge of best practice in leadership and management
- Develop the skills and ability to coach and motivate others as a major part of everyday work
- Learn how to build a strong sense of team spirit and shared purpose in their business
- Enjoy improved respect from their workforce

This programme is delivered over 3 separate days in a workshop format that includes bespoke one to one training to meet individual needs, as well as group working sessions

Training is delivered by Jennifer Reeves, who has considerable hands-on experience delivering training in management and people skills, and has run her own successful HR Consultancy and Management Training business since 2006. She is experienced and accredited to deliver training and assessment of internationally recognised standards, including Investors in People (IIP), Customer First, TQS and ISO 9001.
